

Please keep large companies from dominating the market. Local and individual voices need to be heard.